Daniel 2:32-33; 43-44 (Rev 13)

For use in Understanding Identity of Sea Beast

Dan 2:32-33 As for this image, its head was of fine gold, its breast and its arms of silver, its belly and its thighs of brass, its legs of iron, its feet part of iron, and part of clay. ... .. =ROME

Dan 2:43-44 And whereas you saw the iron mixed with miry clay, they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men; but they shall not cleave one to another, even as iron does not mingle with clay. And in the days of those kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom that shall never be destroyed, nor shall the sovereignty thereof be left to another people; but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever.

Revelation 17:10-11

Likely Interpretation by Christians in Rome

- “Five have fallen”
  - Augustus 29 BC-14 AD
  - Tiberius 14-37 AD
  - Caligula 37-41 AD Evil
  - Claudius 41-54 AD
  - Nero 54-68 AD Evil
- “one is” = the Flavian dynasty (69-96 AD)
  - Vespasian 69-79 AD
- “not yet come ... remain little while”
  - Titus 79-81 AD
- Vs 11 “eighth is of the seven ...” (Nero)
  - Domitian < beast 81-96 AD Extremely Cruel

Revelation 17:12 Looking to the Future (1)

- Rev 17:12
- "The ten horns which you saw are ten kings who have not yet received a kingdom, but they receive authority as kings with the beast for one hour.
  - Ten=indefinite future figure="human" number
  - Will be in power as churches are corrupted
    - Corruption evolved, starting in first century
    - Apostasy became obvious when:
      - 313 "Christianity" legalized (Constantine)
      - 381 "Christians" persecute those of Roman religions
      - 393 "Christianity" mandated by comprehensive law
(Flavius Theodosius; 379-395 AD)

Revelation 17:13 Looking to Future (2)

- Rev 17:13: "These [the ten horns] have one purpose, and they give their power and authority to the beast."
  - Beast=Roman (Babylonian) corruption
  - Effectively emulate those who came before
  - Persecution varied greatly in 2nd-3rd centuries
    - By edicts of the emperors
    - Differed by geographical area
  - Persecution intensified greatly after 250 AD
  - Diocletian (285-305) brutal and cruel
    - Military; saw Christians as cause of Rome's demise
    - Torture: it was not enough to just kill them

Important Figures of Revelation 17

- Rev 17:15: "The waters which you saw where the harlot sits, are peoples and multitudes and nations and tongues."
- Rev 17:18: "The woman whom you saw is the great city, which reigns over the kings of the earth."
  - "Great city"=figurative of power; influence
  - Harlot=entity who has extensive influence
    - Over governmental and economic powers
    - Over peoples, multitudes, nations, tongues
  - Invisible power = hidden influence of the elites

How "the Lamb will Overcome Them" (14)

Revelation 17:16-17

"And the ten horns which you saw, and the beast, these will hate the harlot and will make her desolate and naked, and will eat her flesh and will burn her up with fire. [Beast=initial personification=Domitian (11)]

17 "For God has put it in their hearts to execute His purpose by having a common purpose, and by giving their kingdom to the beast, until the words of God will be fulfilled. [Beast = ruling culture of corruption]

Genesis 15:16 (Example: all in God's time.)

16 And in the fourth generation they shall come hither again. For the iniquity of the Amorite is not yet full.

Revelation Chapter 20

General Approach to Refuting Error

- It is not enough to prove what it does not say
- We must also be ready to give:
  - A plausible explanation of what it does say (1 Pet 3:15)
  - Inviting participation: we do not claim to be perfect
- Each individual has the responsibility ...
  - 2 Tim 2:15 "Study to shew yourself approved unto God, a workman that needs not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth."
  - Phil 2:12 "... work out your own salvation with fear and trembling."

Barnes on Revelation 20

I refer for full proof on this point to the following passages of the New Testament: Matt 10:32-33, compared with Matt 7:21-23; 13:30,38-43; 16:24-27; 25:10,31-46; Mark 8:38; John 5:28-29; Acts 17:31; Rom 2:5-16; 14:10,12; 1 Cor 3:12-15; 4:5; 2 Cor 5:9-11; 2 Thess 1:6-10; 1 Tim 5:24-25; 2 Peter 3:7,10,12; 1 John 2:28; 4:17; Rev 3:5; 20:11-15; 22:12-15. It is utterly "impossible" to explain these passages on any other supposition than that they are intended to teach that the righteous and the wicked will be judged together, and both at the coming of Christ. And if this is so, it is of course impossible to explain them consistently with the view that all the righteous will have been already raised up at the beginning of the millennium in their immortal and glorified bodies [1 Cor 15], and that they have been solemnly approved by the Savior, and admitted to a participation in his glory. Nothing could be more irreconcilable than these two views; and it seems to me, therefore, that the objections to the literal resurrection of the saints at the beginning of the millennial period are insuperable [insurmountable].

Revelation 20:1-3

20:1 And I saw an angel coming down out of heaven, having the key of the abyss and a great chain in his hand.

2 And he laid hold on the dragon, the old serpent, which is the Devil and Satan, and bound him for a thousand years,

3 and cast him into the abyss, and shut (it), and sealed (it) over him, that he should deceive the nations no more, until the thousand years should be finished: after this he must be loosed for a little time.

- See ONLY what John saw: passage above is not difficult
- Deception is disabled by truth
- Does this mean Satan would no longer have ANY influence?
- Figurative 1000 = 10 (human) ** 3 (God)
- Loosed: possible purpose = a final trial of the faithful?

Revelation 20:4a

“Thrones” Referenced in the Gospels

Matthew 19:28

And Jesus said unto them, Verily I say unto you, that ye who have followed me, in the regeneration when the Son of man shall sit on the throne of His glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

Luke 22:29-30

I grant you that you may eat and drink at My table in My kingdom, and you will sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

Revelation 20:4b

Rev 20:4

And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgment was given unto them: and (I saw) the souls of them that had been beheaded for the testimony of Jesus, and for the word of God, and such as worshipped not the beast, neither his image, and received not the mark upon their forehead and upon their hand; and they lived, and reigned with Christ a thousand years.

- Thrones: Matthew 19:28; Luke 22:29
- Souls, recall 6:9-11. Did John see their bodies?
  - Souls=psuchas is not used to refer to the body
  - What is to be resurrected? 1 Cor. 15:35-54
- THEY=Martyrs and "sufferers" = special class of Christians whose examples and influence will be exceedingly precious

Revelation 20:4c

Revelation 20:4

... they lived, and reigned with Christ a thousand years.

- Does Christ live and reign today? How?
  - By His influence in your life (Romans 8)?
- Does “alive/reigning” require physical presence?
- Before we learned/understood Rev 6:9-11, ...
  - Were these martyrs alive or dead to us?
  - What are they now to us?
  - Do we now gain strength/courage from them?
- To us, are they spiritually alive in their influence?
- Do they spiritually reign with Christ in this regard?
- Rom 8:37 ... in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us.

Revelation 20:5

Rev 20:5

The rest of the dead lived not until the thousand years should be finished. This is the first resurrection.

- Two alternatives for “rest of the dead”
  - All dead, saved or unsaved, not covered in vs 4
  - OR
  - Faithful Christians=saved, but not covered in 4
- First resurrection = that described in 20:4
  - Proof of definition is in 20:6=“reign with Him 1000 years.”
- Next (2nd) resurrection not called SR, but 20:11-15
  - It will be of the just AND the unjust
  - All will be judged and appropriately rewarded

Revelation 20:6

Rev 20:6

Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: over these the second death hath no power; but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years.

- First resurrection=that of 20:4
- Second death = 2:11; 20:6; 20:14; 21:8
  - Defined explicitly: 20:14 and 21:8 = lake of fire
- Priests ... reign=in a special sense of distinction because of their courage and bravery

Revelation 20:7-9

7 And when the thousand years are finished, Satan shall be loosed out of his prison,

8 and shall come forth to deceive the nations which are in the four corners of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together to the war: the number of whom is as the sand of the sea.

9 And they went up over the breadth of the earth, and compassed the camp of the saints about, and the beloved city: and fire came down out of heaven, and devoured them.

- Gog and Magog = a confederacy of armies that attacked Israel as prophesied by Ezekiel (38-39), who said it was going to take seven months to bury those Israel killed in order to cleanse the land.
- THEY = the deceived nations.

Revelation 20:10

10 And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where are also the beast and the false prophet; and they shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever

THEY = sea beast, false prophet and Satan.

Revelation 20:11-15

11 And I saw a great white throne, and Him that sat upon it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them.

12 And I saw the dead, the great and the small, standing before the throne; and books were opened: and another book was opened, which is (the book) of life: and the dead were judged out of the things which were written in the books, according to their works. 13 And the sea gave up the dead that were in it; and death and Hades gave up the dead that were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works. 14 And death and Hades were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death, (even) the lake of fire. 15 And if any was not found written in the book of life, he was cast into the lake of fire.

Questions for Revelation 20:1-10

- Where is the “rapture?”
  - Burden of proof on those who teach it.
  - Not taught widely before 1830 or so; Darby
    - Scofield Bible footnotes
    - Publication financed by Zionist interests

Only possibility is 1 Thessalonians 4:16-17

16 For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven, with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first;

17 then we that are alive, that are left, shall together with them be caught up in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.

Caught up = harpazo = to seize, catch, pluck, pull,
take by force = Phillip in Acts 8:39.

Rapture is from the Latin "rapere or raptum"

Comparison of Our World with 100-299 AD

- Things That Are the Same Now as in 100-299 AD
  - Most all countries have ...
    - Corruption in religious, political and “power centers”
    - Invisible power is in the hands of a relatively few
    - Not only political: e.g., Eisenhower: mil-ind complex (1961)
  - Not Changed: common view of religion by general populace:
    - Must be organized (and big) to be recognized > Relig Estab
    - Faithful churches of Christ are not understood > Marginalized
      - Bible-only faith system must be viewed spiritually (1 Cor 2)
      - Many “scholars” believe Bible-only concept to be impossible
  - Same: Ways that God cares for faithful Christians (above)
- Things Different Now from 100-299 AD
  - Few countries have a mandated state religion now
  - So less persecution caused ONLY by religious differences
  - But considerable “ethnic cleansing” (euphemism for genocide)
    - Contrast with the Roman goals of inclusion/integration

What Happened to Sound Churches 100-299 AD?

- Most All Were Sound in the First Century
    - Under Apostles and first century prophets (inspired)
    - Informal canon was developing/recognized by the faithful
    - Inspired writings largely completed in 1st century
  - Second-Third Centuries 101-299 AD
    - No recorded concept of “Bible-only” religion (few Bibles)
    - But, writings of many church fathers exhibit sound faith
    - Abandonment of 1st century organization > Relig Estab
    - Endless trivial controversies ⇔ actually, power struggles
  - Were there some small groups who held to the Bible?
    - No formal historical evidence (for obvious reasons); but
    - House & wilderness churches=NT pattern; e.g. Rom 16:3-5
    - Biblical evidence as to sufficiency of the written word

History: Corruption of Sound Churches in 2nd and 3rd Centuries (65-299 AD)

While enduring the early persecutions of the Roman government (65-300 AD), most of professing Christianity went through a gradual departure from New Testament doctrine concerning church government, worship and practice. Local churches ceased to be autonomous by giving way to the control of "bishops" ruling over hierarchies. The simple form of worship from the heart was replaced with the rituals and splendor of paganism. Ministers became "priests;" and pagans became "Christians" by simply being sprinkled with water. This tolerance of an unregenerate membership only made things worse. SPRINKLED PAGANISM was about the best definition for Roman Catholicism.

<http://www.biblebelievers.com/jmelton/Catholic.html>

- > Was "legalized" by Constantine (306-337) in 313 AD
- > Mandated as only Roman State religion after 380 AD
- > 381: "Christians" persecute those of Roman religions

Evolution of the Roman Catholic Church

For the first 280 years of Christian history, Christianity was banned by the Roman Empire, and Christians were terribly persecuted. This changed after the “conversion” of the Roman Emperor Constantine, who provided religious toleration with the Edict of Milan in AD 313, effectively lifting the ban on Christianity. Later, in AD 325, Constantine called the Council of Nicea in an attempt to unify Christianity. Constantine envisioned Christianity as a religion that could unite the Roman Empire, which at that time was beginning to fragment and divide. While this may have seemed to be a positive development, the results were anything but positive for the true church [Mt 16:18]. Just as Constantine refused to fully embrace the gospel, but continued many of his pagan beliefs and practices, so the church that Constantine and his successors promoted progressively became less Bible doctrine and more Roman paganism. DBB paraphrased from:

Practical Conclusions from Our Study

- “Shortly Come to Pass”
  - Rome did not fall until 476 (eastern) and 1453 (western)
  - Much evil HAS fallen: judgments of individuals and nations
  - Still remaining: wars, disposition of beasts, final judgment
  - Inspired writings completed in 1st century Rev 22:18-19
- Sources of Corrupt Power and Religion Still Persist
  - Rev 17:18: “the woman whom you saw is the great city, which reigns over the kings of the earth.”
  - Role of Harlot=was played by Roman elite=now Vatican elite
  - Elite ($$$$$) have always done their best to stay hidden
- Additional Practical Principles that We Can Use
  - The ultimate solution is not in/of this world < CRITICAL
  - God WILL take care of faithful, dedicated Christians
  - Recognize sea & earth beasts & harlot TODAY is in God’s plan
  - Visualize (and glory in) their disintegration and fall
  - IT WILL SHORTLY COME TO PASS; GLORIFY GOD!!!

Persecution Under Nero and Domitian

The persecutions under Nero and Domitian were not undertaken by the state as such; they were simply personal matters, and established no precedent as to the conduct of the state toward Christianity. They were rather spasmodic outbursts of personal enmity, but were looked upon with great horror as the first to which the Church was subjected. There was no general persecution, which took in all parts of the empire, until the reign of Decius (249-251), but Domitian's cruelty and ferocity were extreme, and many persons of the highest rank fell under his condemnation and suffered banishment and even death, not especially on account of Christianity, though there were Christians among them, but on account of his jealousy, and for political reasons of various sorts.

That Domitian's persecution of the Christians was not of long duration is testified by Tertullian, Apol. 5.

Note: the URL above has links to several early church history documents.

Validation of: "That Domitian's persecution of the Christians was not of long duration is testified by Tertullian, Apol. 5."

From Tertullian Apol. Chapter 5:

"Domitian, too, a man of Nero's type in cruelty, tried his hand at persecution; but as he had something of the human in him, he soon put an end to what he had begun, even restoring again those whom he had banished."

Persecutions of Diocletian and Galerius

Christians had always been subject to local discrimination in the empire, but emperors prior to Diocletian were reluctant to issue general laws against the sect. In the 250s, under the reigns of Decius and Valerian, Roman subjects including Christians were compelled to sacrifice to Roman gods or face imprisonment and execution, ... After Gallienus's accession in 260, these laws went into abeyance. Diocletian's assumption of power in 284 did not mark an immediate reversal ... but it did herald a gradual shift in official attitudes against religious minorities. In the first fifteen years of his rule, Diocletian purged the army of Christians, condemned Manicheans to death, and surrounded himself with public opponents of Christianity. Diocletian's preference for activist government, combined with his self-image as a restorer of past Roman glory, foreboded the most pervasive persecution in Roman history. In the winter of 302, Galerius urged Diocletian to begin a general persecution of the Christians, ... and a general persecution was called on February 24, 303. ... Although the persecution resulted in death, torture, imprisonment, or dislocation for many Christians, the majority of the empire's Christians avoided punishment. The persecution did, however, cause many churches to split between those who had complied with imperial authority, and those who had remained "pure".

Last Three Trumpets (Woe Trumpets): Affect people ...

- Pain; physical, but more importantly, spiritual torment
- Death (compare with sixth seal – lack of repentance)
- Judgment; Heaven and Hell (Rev. 11:15-19)

COMPARISON OF 7 SEALS WITH THE 7 TRUMPETS

- 📦 Seals: events in time – God’s universal *power
  - All classifications of events: good and evil
- 📦 Trumpets sound *alarm or warnings
- 📦 God allows harm to prevail temporarily to *warn
  - All classifications of harm ...
    - war, pestilence, natural calamities ...
    - demonstrate the consequences of sin
  - We can see what life would be without God
- 📦 Seals demonstrate power; trumpets *warn
- 📦 Seals/trumpets are not necessarily sequential

One Historian Put it This Way

- Before the Apostasy (33 to 150 AD)
  - Christians strive to give as much as possible to Jesus and your fellow man.
- After the Apostasy (after 313 AD)
  - “Christian” strive to get all they could get from Jesus = idolatry.
- Exceptions – those who were persecuted for remaining faithful to the written word and oral traditions of the apostles and early church fathers, whose faithfulness persisted through the dark ages, the reformation, and is still alive today.
